

LABOUR LAW NEWSFLASH – EDITION 11/2016

Labour Newsflash

Welcome to the next edition of the labour newsflash.

Last week the Parliamentary Portfolio Committee was briefed by the National Treasury on, amongst others, the Employee Tax Incentive Bill. No doubt this discussion will be of great interest to a number of readers of this mail. Click here for a Report on Attendance of the session.

Whilst Johnny is criss-crossing the country with his Annual Labour Law Update, we have found that the trend in a number of companies is that they have embarked on a number of operational requirements interventions. Hand-in-hand with this, goes Full and Final Settlement Agreements.

Over the past few years the Full and Final Settlement has become a firm favourite between employers and employees to try and resolve the issues without having to go through the unnecessary pain of Litigation. Click here for a summary of a case which unpacks the Full and Final Settlement Agreement in greater detail.

Ensure that you register for your local Annual Labour Law Update to learn more about these and other relevant cases.

We look forward to seeing you there.

'Till next time
